

French family Line

Thomas' father may have been John French who was buried 7 February 1561 at Kelsale, Suffolk County, England, and his grandfather, William French of Lowestoft, Suffolk County who was born about 1450 and died 1520; his will was dated 1520, and filed in Somerset House London.

Thomas French (Ffrens in record) lived in Saxmundham, Suffolk County, England. He may have been the Warden of the St. Mary's church in Kelsale in 6 February 1567.

Thomas French married Alice (Alse in record) and they had five children. Thomas French was buried on 2 September 1567 and his wife Alice was buried 3 January 1590.

His son Robert was baptized 26 April 1545 at Saxmundham, Suffolk, England.

Robert French (Robard Frenche in record) was married 20 July 1569 at Kelsale, Suffolk, England, to Alice (Aells in record) daughter of Thomas Wylton. Alice was from Knodishall, Suffolk, England.

They were blessed with seven children baptized in Knodishall, Suffolk, England.

His daughter was Elizabeth who was baptized 19 June 1580 in Knodishall, Suffolk, England. Elizabeth was married to Henry Loker.