

History of Mary Waite

Mary, daughter of Richard and Elizabeth Waite, was born 15 February 1646. Mary married Joseph Bartlett 27 October 1668. They lived in the part of Cambridge that later became Newton, Massachusetts in 1854. They were blessed with six children.

Joseph died in 26 December 1702.

Mary died in 21 December 1721.

History of Richard Waite

Richard Waite was born 10 April 1604 in Alford, Lincolnshire, England.

He was a tailor in Boston, Massachusetts and was admitted to the church in 28 June 1634. He had a garden plot towards the new mylne, in 25 July 1637. He had a lot at Braintree, Massachusetts around 11 January 1637 or 1638.

He married Elizabeth, who became a church member of the church of Newton in 1639. She was born about 1615. They were blessed with eight children all which were born in Newton, Massachusetts.

Elizabeth died in 1651.

He died on 17 September 1681 in Boston, Massachusetts.