

History of Mercy Dickinson

Mercy Dickinson, daughter of Thomas Dickinson and Jenet, was born in August 1646, in Rowley, Essex, Massachusetts. Mercy married Nathaniel Adams, son of William Adams, on 30 June 1668, in Ipswich, Essex, Massachusetts.

Mercy and William were blessed with seven children, all were born in Ipswich, Essex, Massachusetts.

History of Thomas Dickinson

Thomas Dickinson was born about 1614, in England. He married Jenet about 1638, probable in Rowley, Essex, Massachusetts. They were blessed with six children, all born in Rowley, Essex, Massachusetts.

Thomas was a proprietor, in Rowley. His will was dated 8 March 1661, probated 17 April 1662. Thomas was buried 29 March 1662, in Rowley, Essex, Massachusetts.

Thomas' wife Jenet married second John Whipple of Ipswich, Massachusetts.

Jenet was buried 1 February 1686.